INTRODUCTION

To live is to grow. In the many phases of life each of us continues to grow.

Through mistakes our knowledge increases. We learn to do it appropriately.

When we meet people and make new friends, our sense of humanity flourishes.

As we become aware of our future and begin to realize the myriad of adventures, problems, and responsibilities, we mature into adults.

By loving, understanding, and helping each other, we grow to discover the true meaning of life.

Without developing intellectually a person cannot realize himself, cannot truly know himself for who he is and what his potential offers.

MR. JOHN ROWLANDS

The 1981 edition of the Garchive is dedicated to Mr. John Rowlands.

Mr. Rowlands graduated from G.A.R. Memorial High School in 1960. He lettered in football, wrestling, and track.

In high school Mr. Rowlands was an All-Scholastic and All-State team member. He also played on the Unico team. He was rewarded for his talent with a four year scholarship to Susquehanna University.

Mr. Rowlands started as a center and linebacker for four years at the university. During his college career he made the All-State and All-East football teams. The team's record for the years he played was a prestigious 32-2.

Other awards he collected consisted of the Senior Award, presented by the Quarterback Club at Susquehanna, and the Kiwanis Charities Festival Outstanding Defensive Player Award. Mr. Rowlands is also a charter member of the Susquehanna University Sports Hall of Fame.

In 1970 Mr. Rowlands came to G.A.R. and has been here ever since. As a world cultures teacher he has widened the scope of learning for many students and helped them with many problems.

His ten year high school coaching record is 70-32-4. He led the Grenadiers from '74 to '79 to the Wyoming Valley Conference Division II Championship.

In 1976 he again shone by taking claim to the Pennsylvania State Class AA Championship. The team was named the number one team in WARMland, and Coach Rowlands was named Coach of the Year.

Mr. Rowlands also coached teams like the Unico East team and the Big 33 team.

Mr. Rowlands is a charter member of the March of Dimes Board.

He is now serving as athletic director of G.A.R. This job consists of making schedules for all games, supervising home events, and making sure all games and meets are handled smoothly and correctly.

Because of his many talents Mr. John Rowlands is very special to everyone linked with G.A.R. He has contributed to the faculty, students, staff, and community here at G.A.R. and will forever be remembered as a champion and a friend.

Retirement

MARY K. LENAHAN

This year, Miss Mary K. Lenahan will be retiring after 39 years of dedicated service in education.

After graduating from Coughlin High School, Miss Lenahan obtained a B.S. and an M.S. in Education from Marywood College. She also received eight credits in graduate school at Wilkes College.

Throughout Miss Lenahan's career she has taught several business courses at Tunkhannock High School, Meyers High School, Coughlin High School, and G.A.R. High School.

Miss Lenahan's future plans include traveling throughout Ireland, England, Scotland, and Wales. After returning, she plans to travel extensively throughout the United States.

We of the Garchive staff extend our thanks and best wishes to Miss Lenahan, who will always be a part of G.A.R.

Ed is congratulated by Mr. Wasilewski, Mr. Latinski, and Coach Fick on going over 4000 yards in his career.

The picture says it all.

"Doc" Moses — "Doc" has been the school doctor for the past 5 years.

We are honoring him in the football section, as he is most often seen pacing the sidelines during games.

Although "Doc" is chief of surgery at Mercy Hospital, he still finds time to take care of G.A.R. Thanks "Doc" — you will always be a prominent member of the G.A.R. family.

The most outstanding rusher in the history of G.A.R. and the Wyoming Valley Football Conference, Eddie Amendola surpassed Jimmy Cefalo, now with the Miami Dolphins. Ed ended his illustrious career with 4557 yards, 2003 this year, on 736 carries for a 6.2 yard average. Ed's totals for 3 years place him among the top 3 rushers in state history, ranking just behind Matt Suhey of the Chicago Bears.

When the offense was on the field, Ed kept people in awe with his slippery moves, super speed, and overwhelming power. Of course he gives much credit to his offensive line, but a good amount of his yardage was due to his own efforts.

Future running backs will point to Eddie Amendola and his achievements as goals to strive for. In tribute our staff says: CONGRATULATIONS.

"Score again, Ed. I gave 10 points."

A moment of rest.

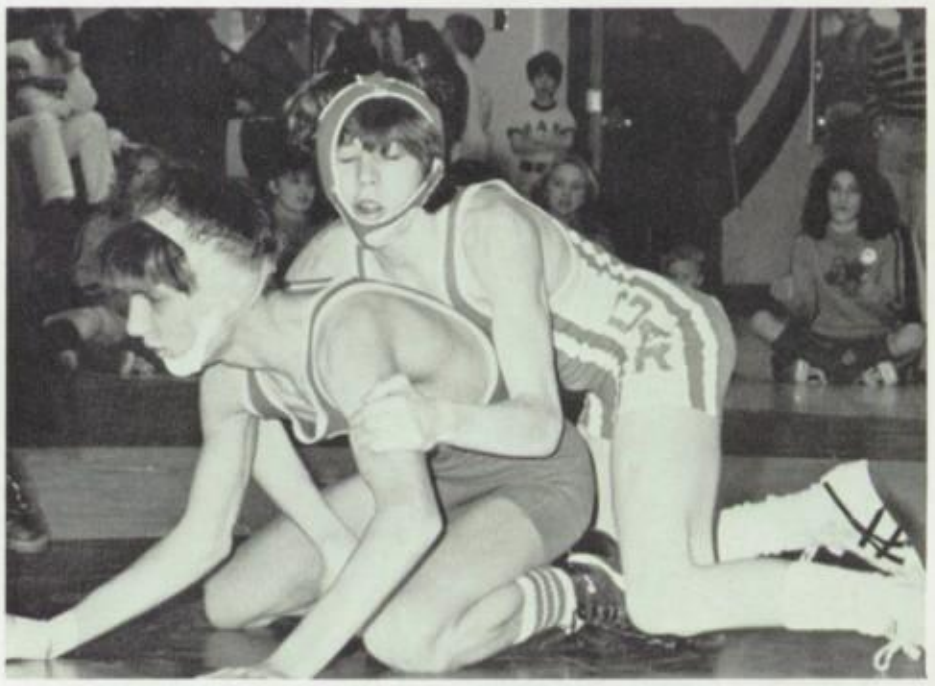
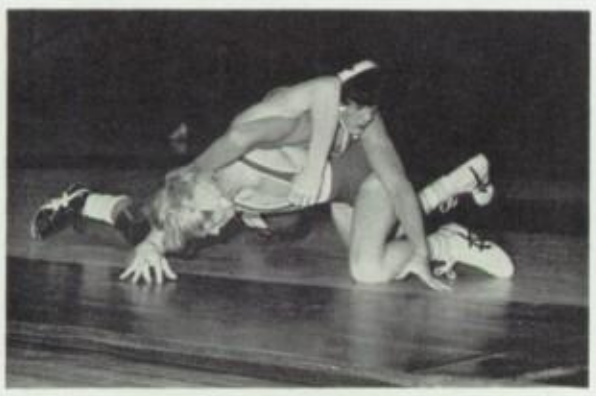
"He doesn't taste bad, but he could use a little mustard."

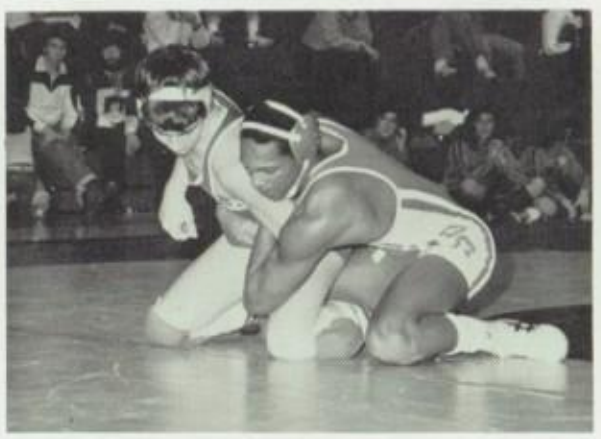


"I just love your muscles."

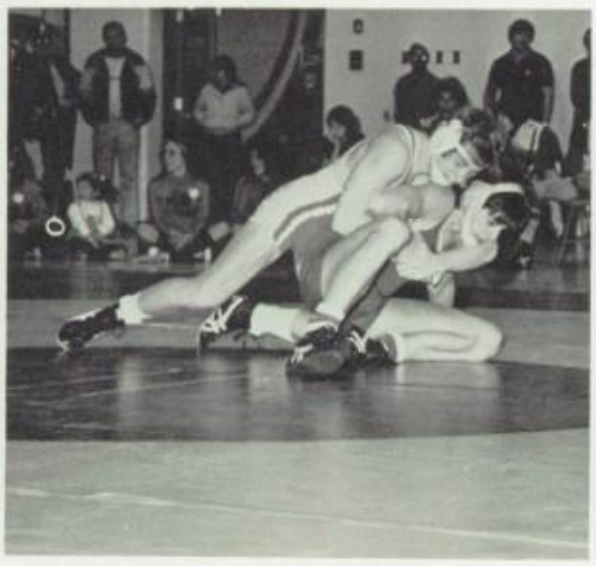


See what can happen when you don't follow directions exactly.

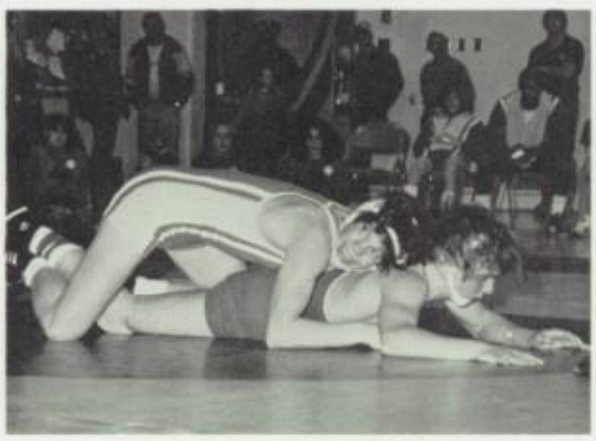
"You're not getting away that easily."



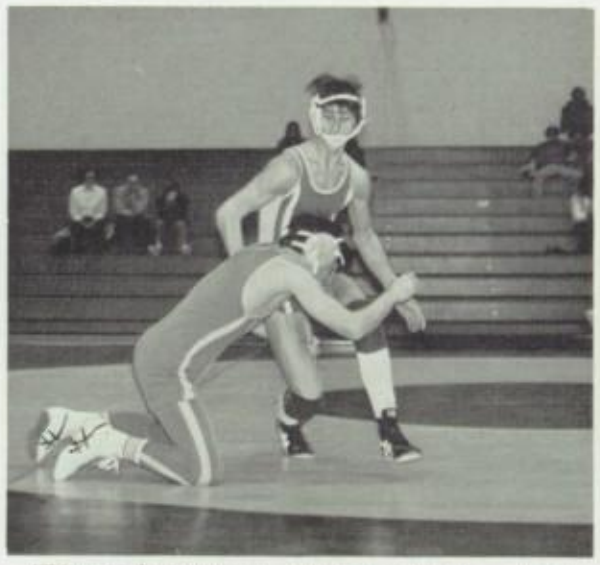
"See that mat, kiss it."



Frankie Whispers "sour nothings" in his ear.



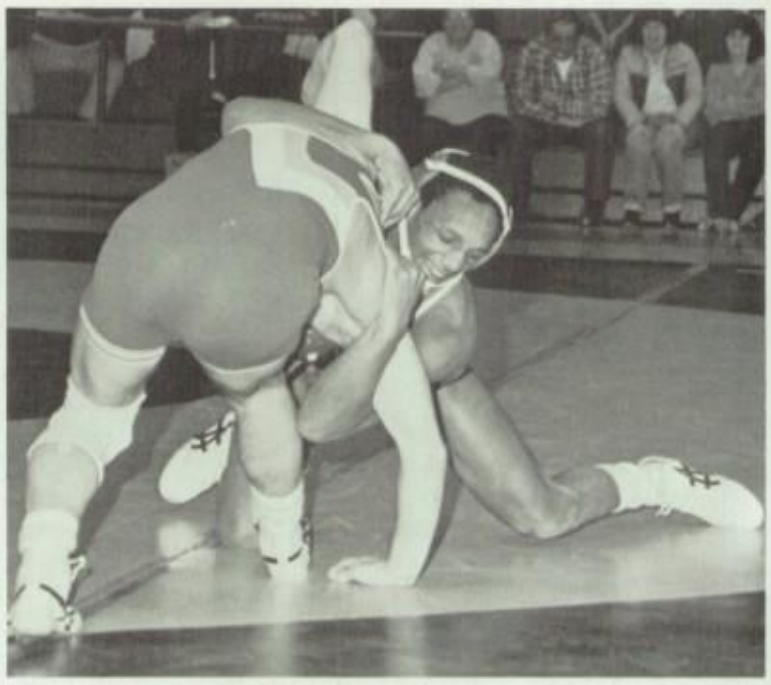
"Take the picture this is my best side."



"Please forgive me, I'll never do it again."

Friendly foes.

"It's tough to grab a guy's head when he doesn't have one."

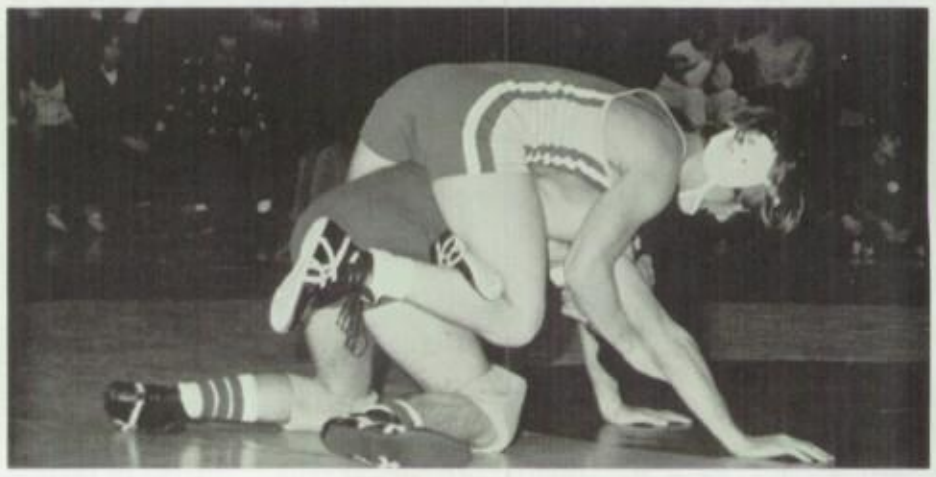


The End!!!

"It never hurts this much in practice."

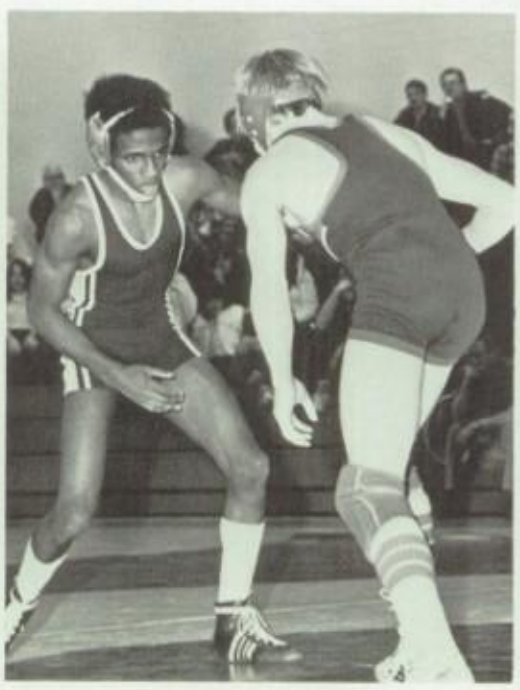
The winner is . . .

"Go get him little fella."



"You sure get a nice long ride for 25¢."

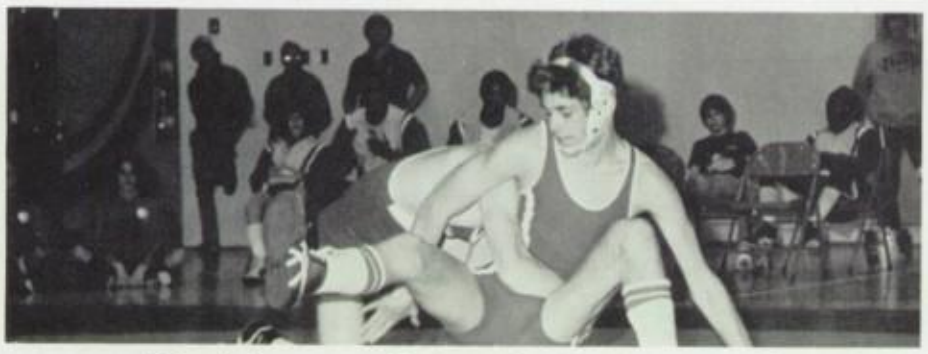
"Hurry up, clock!"



Bras sizes him up.

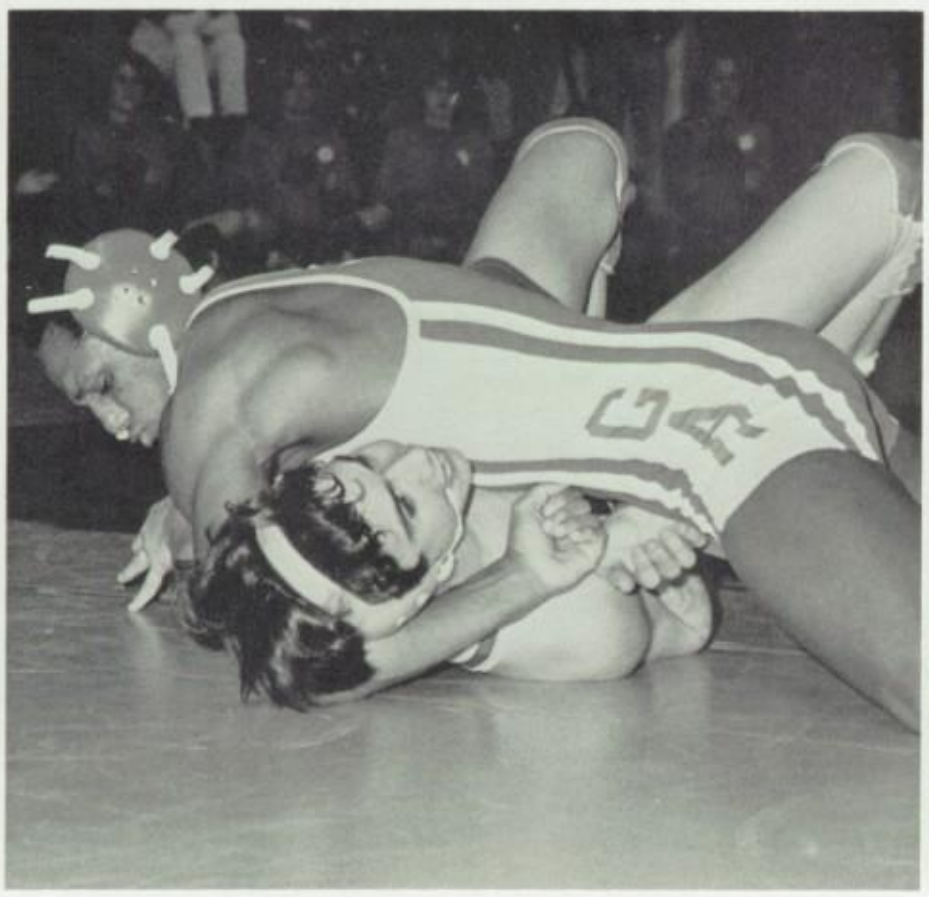
These kids come up with the craziest dances.

A stand-off

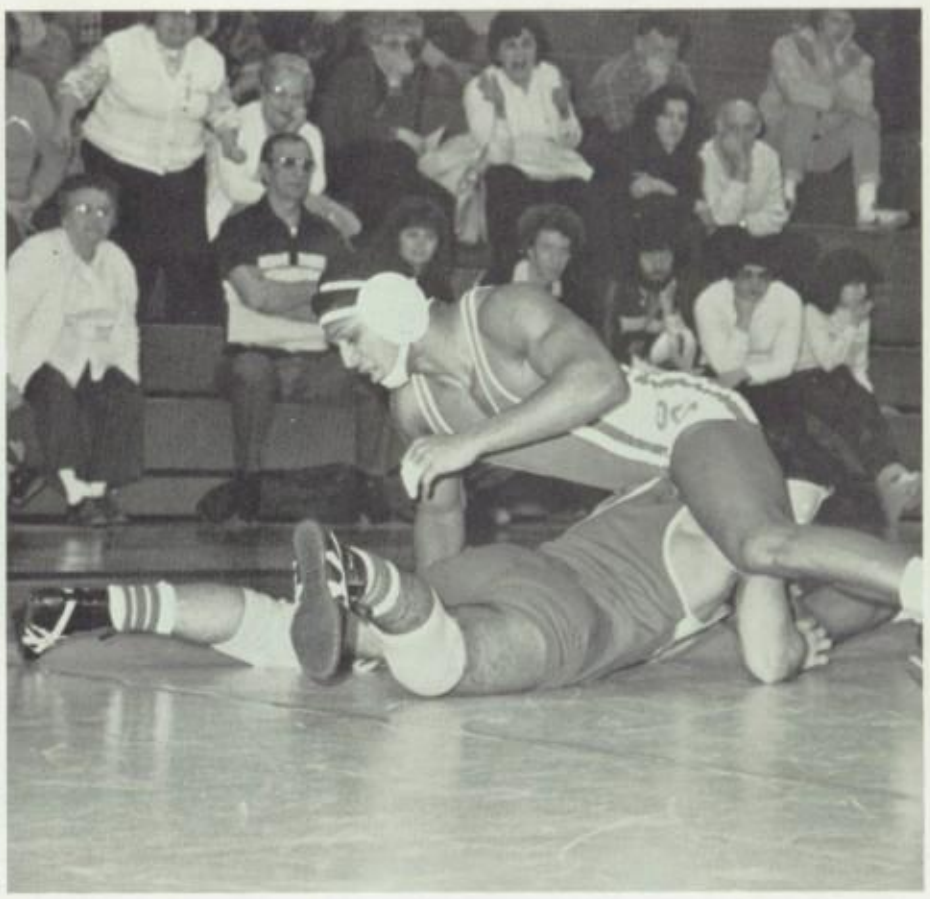


"Now let's see – if I move this leg this way . . . "

"I can hear your heart way back here."



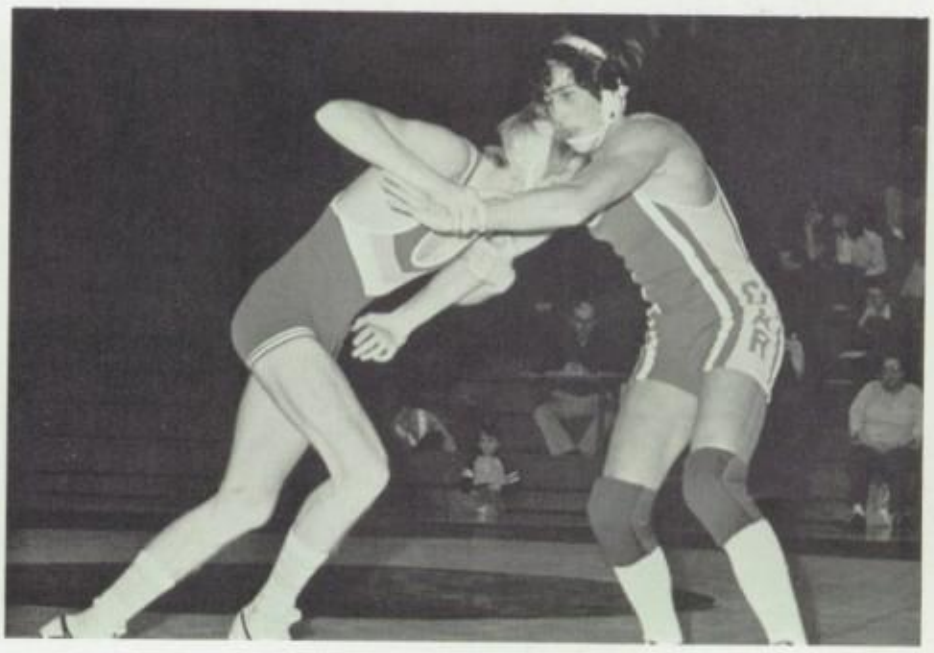
"Now, what did you say before?"



Another Tolbert victim.

The coach is tough.

"But I'm not drowning so get off my back."



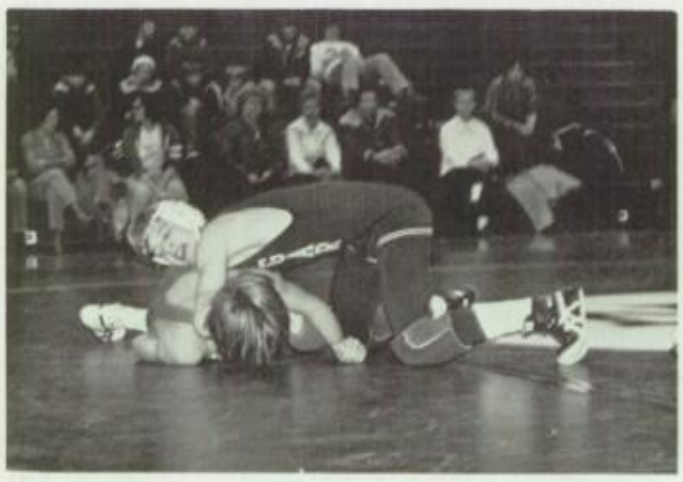
"Can't we talk about this?"

Junior High Team

Front Row — Frank Brewer, Tom Regan, Dave Zielinski, Bob Hughes. Row 2 — Frank Schiel, Fred Schiel, Tom White, Don Maharty, Chris Benson, Bill Blackwell, Pat Jones. Back Row — Ken Jasterzenski, Gary Suda, Butch Farley, Chris Weale, Bill Lassiter, Dean Malta, Alex Jasterzenski, Coach Fred Klein.

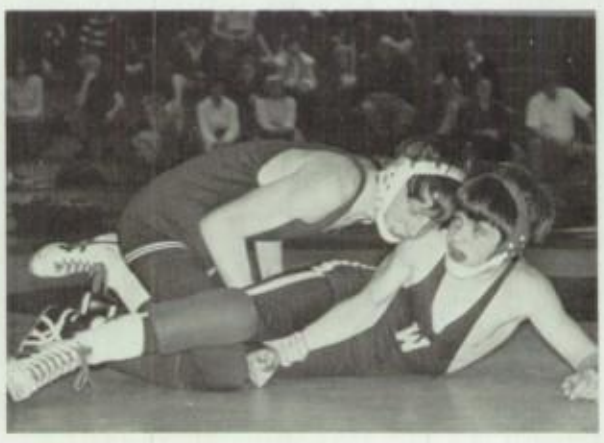
"Well if you showered they would be your friends."

A nose job.



"My dad says that this is the way they used to pull teeth in the old days."

Everyone needs a hug.



"His pulse is regular."

Varsity Basketball

Front Row — Joe Kane, Gene Ellis, Jonn Russ, Mike Corcoran, Joe Ellis, Rick Macko, Charles Decker, John Barberio, Joe Marx, Robert Medley. Back Row — Assistant Coach Paul Brown, Sam Toney, Joe Popovich, Scott Suda, Larry Koretz, Ed DeMichele, John Wysocki, Paul Moran, Dave Roebuck, Coach John Hopkins.

They just lie down in his path.

"Oh, you want one in the face."

The Floor General.

"Somebody say food?"

" . . . you put your right hand in . . . "

"No punching, biting or shooting!"

The opening tip-off.

The three-point moon shot.

FRENCH.

This ball is so heavy.

Here's Ed DeMichele for Ultra Bright.

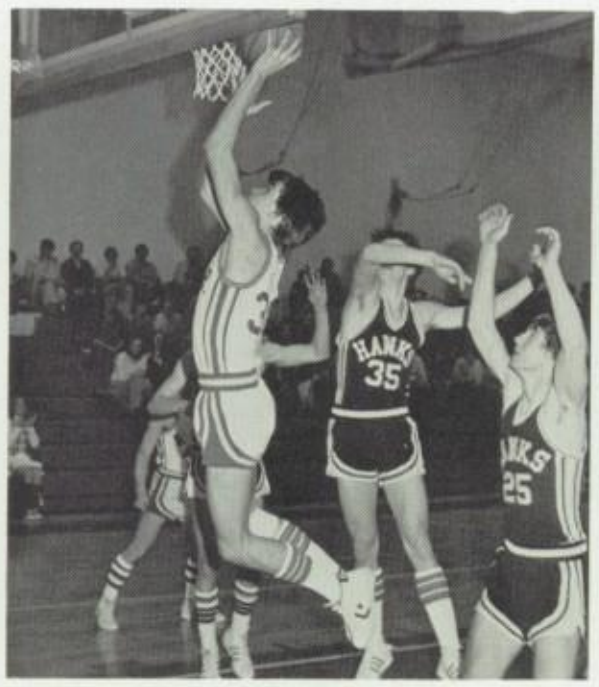
High Anxiety.

It's a snap of the fingers.

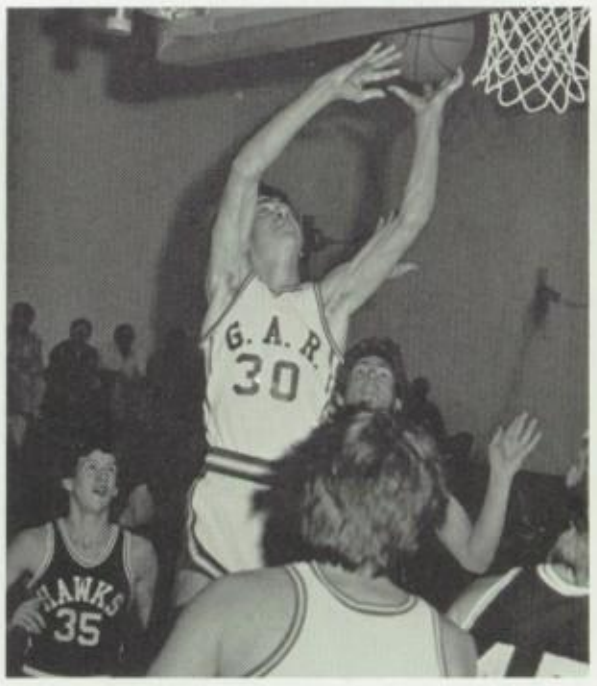
Grrrrrrr ...

Monkey in the middle.

"Half my mind says jump, the other half doesn't."



Squirmy Scotty.



Muscles Suda.

Ed, stop laughing so much.

Strategy.

DeMichele Scores 1000 Points

Ed DeMichele became the 4th player in G.A.R. history to score 1000 points in his high school career. A starter since his sophomore year, he was the first player not wearing #44 to attain this prestigious honor. Pictured after the 1000th point are Paul Brown, Jim DeMichele, Coach John Hopkins, Ed DeMichele, Mrs. DeMichele, Mary Jean DeMichele, Vincent A. Lorusso, Chet Wasilewski.

Power shot.

Fumble.

Over the fingertips.

Yes Ed ... a ball.

Sammey signals.

7th and 8th Grade Team

Freshman Team

"Gimme room!"

It's got to come back down eventually.

Stop and pop.

Check Mo's moves.

Just the way the coach taught him.

Girls' Basketball

Lisa Drank, Deandrea Volovic, Tammy Mosley, Shauna Patterson, Diane Breese.

Front Row — Roxanne Carter. Back Row — Lisa DeCinti, Brenda Mattey, Leona Keates.

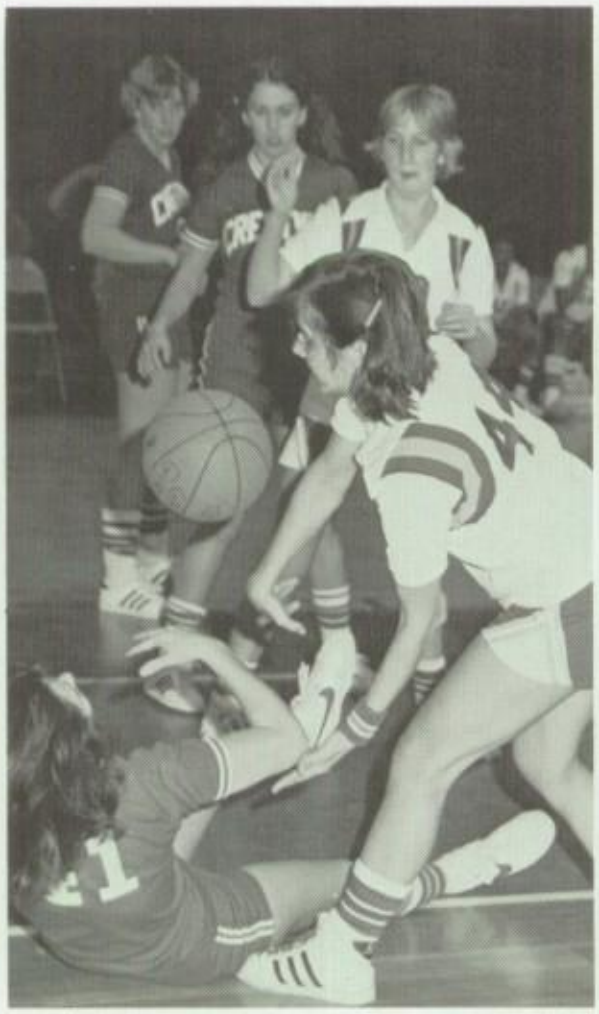
Coach Gill plans the strategy.

"An elbow in the gut always gets them."

Butterfingers!

"Listen girls, time is running out!"

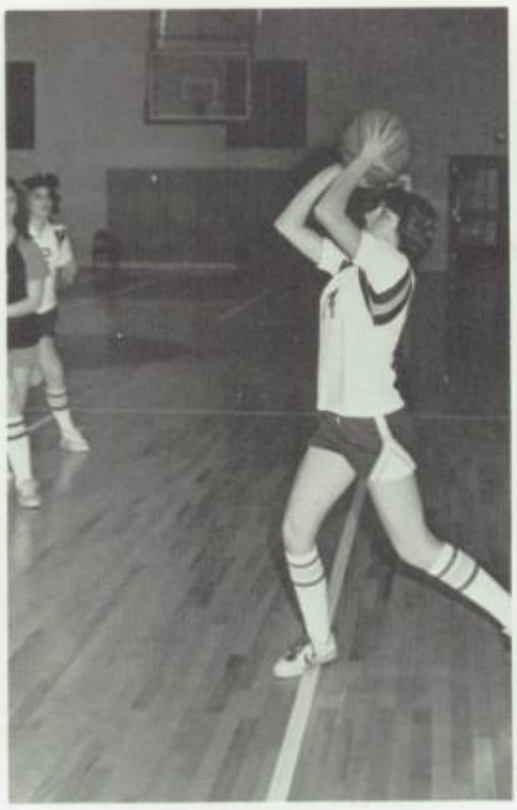
Roxanne is rollin'.



Take that!!!

Dee is checking out the situation.

Tough D, Lisa.



Perfect form.

What a crew!

An easy lay up.

Lisa is about to run a stop sign.

Determination.

Easy reach.

"I'll show her who's stronger!"

All alone.

All eyes on the clock.

Halt!

Ballet practice.

"Oh, go on!"

Tip toe for two.

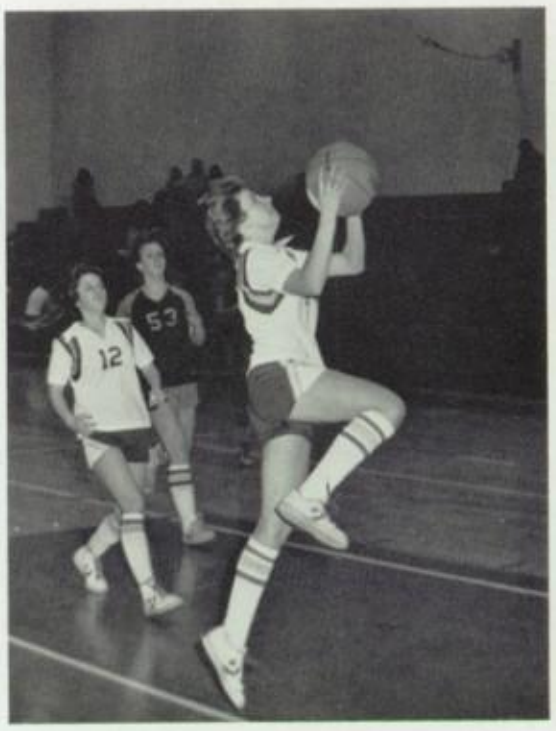
"It looks higher than I thought!"

In traffic.

Leona lays one up.

The odds are not in Brenda's favor.

Let it fly.



E – Z

"Go back, you forgot to say 'May I'!"

Dee turns one loose.

"Here you can have it for a while."
